

In the spirit of democracy, please delay the vote on broadcast ownership/consolidation until there has been sufficient time and opportunity for public opinion to be heard. Public involvement in decision-making is, afterall, what democray is about. I personally feel that the ownership of broadcast media is already too consolidated to provide the public with the services, options, and diversity we deserve to have.